

Head and Neck Study Days

Queen Victoria Hospital is an internationally renowned centre for Head and Neck surgery

Join us to hear from members of our Head and Neck multidisciplinary team including Head and Neck Consultant Surgeons, Clinical Nurse Specialists, Prosthetists, Clinical Psychologists, Ward nurses, Dietitians and Speech and Language Therapists as well as patient speakers.

Day 1

Surgical management of Head and Neck Cancer

- An overview of the Head and Neck Cancer pathway
- Surgical management of Head and Neck cancer including free flap reconstruction
- Nursing management of free flaps in the acute post operative setting
- Emergency management following major head and neck surgery
- Prosthetic reconstruction
- Patient story

Day 2

Functional outcomes following Head and Neck surgery

- Communication after oral/ oropharyngeal surgery
- The normal swallow function & swallow complications after head and neck surgery
- Nutritional considerations
- Psychological considerations after head and neck surgery
- Laryngectomy surgical procedure
- Alteration to function after laryngectomy
- Discharging a patient from hospital after laryngectomy
- Patient story (laryngectomy)

19/03/25

22/10/25

Please use the QR codes to book

Intended audience: nurses, doctors, allied health professionals working with or with a keen interest in head and neck cancer surgery.

20/03/25

23/10/25

Day 1 – Wednesday 19th March or Wednesday 22nd October 2025

Day 2 - Thursday 20th March 2025 or Thursday 23rd October 2025

£100 per day

