

QVH: A brief history in pictures

1863 - 1963

A collection of photographs from the first 100 years of our hospital's distinguished heritage

East Grinstead Cottage Hospital, founded 1863

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

The Cottage Hospital's new home, 1902

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

Jubilee Centre community hospital, built 1936

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

‘Peanut’ children’s ward, 1936

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

Sir Archibald McIndoe, Plastic Surgeon (1900 – 1960)

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

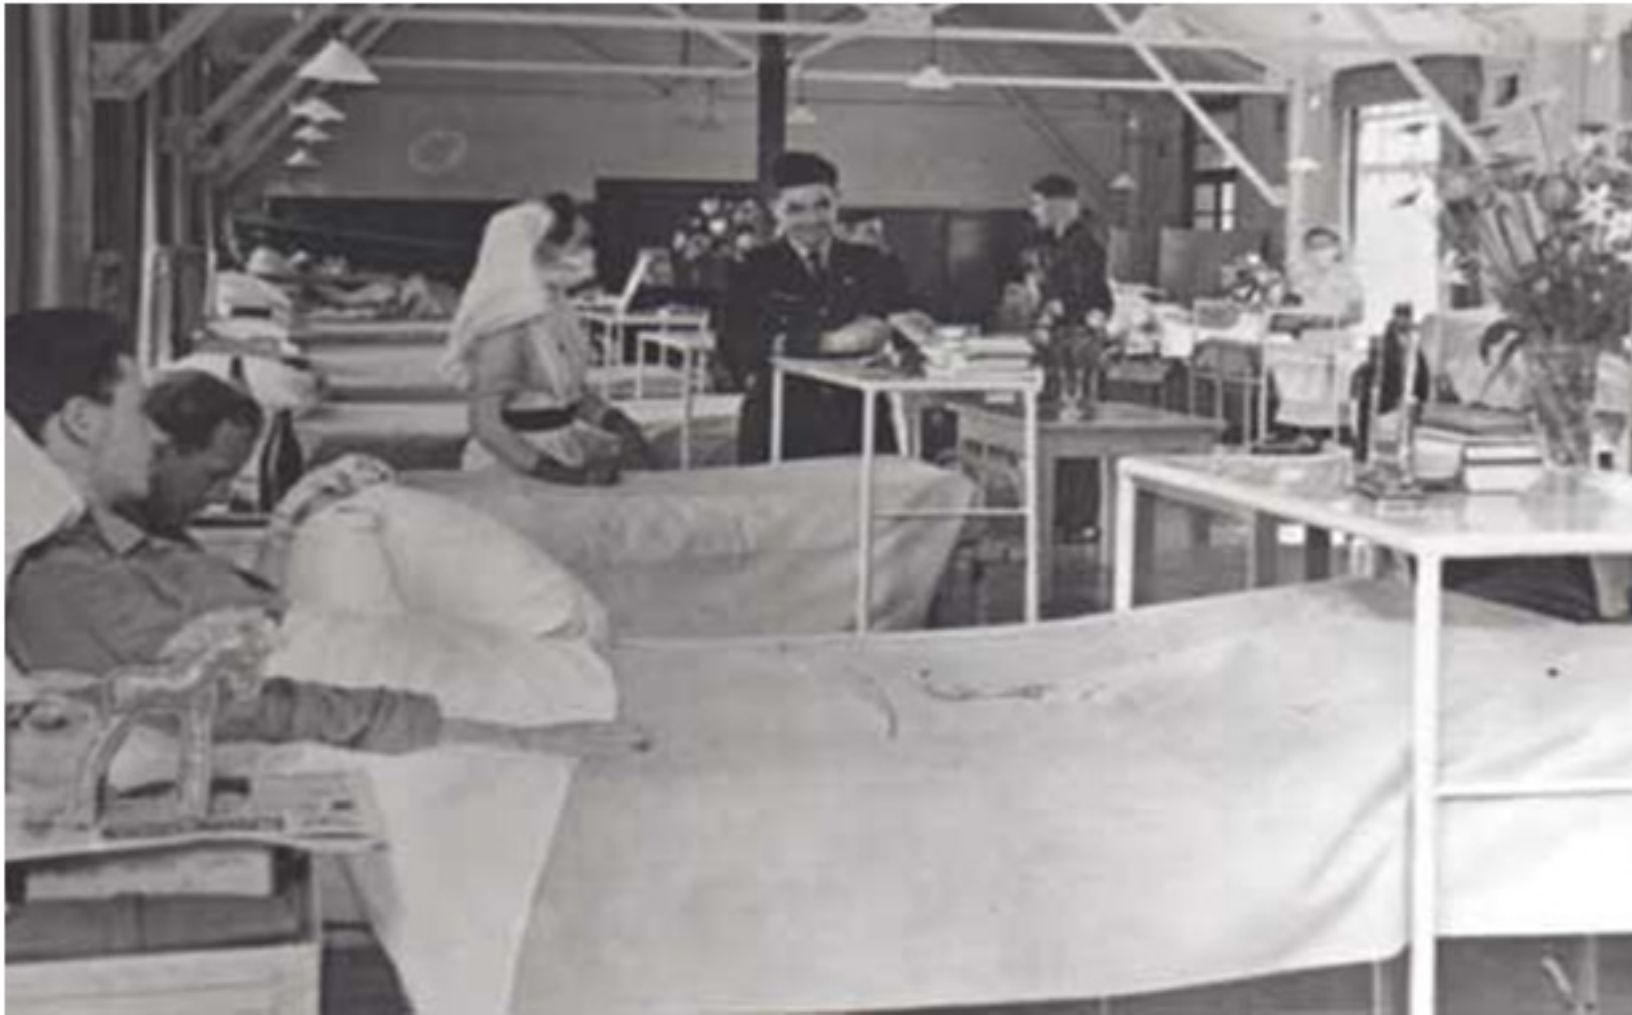

Sir Archibald McIndoe with his 'Guinea Pigs'

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

Sir Archibald McIndoe in the Guinea Pig Pub

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

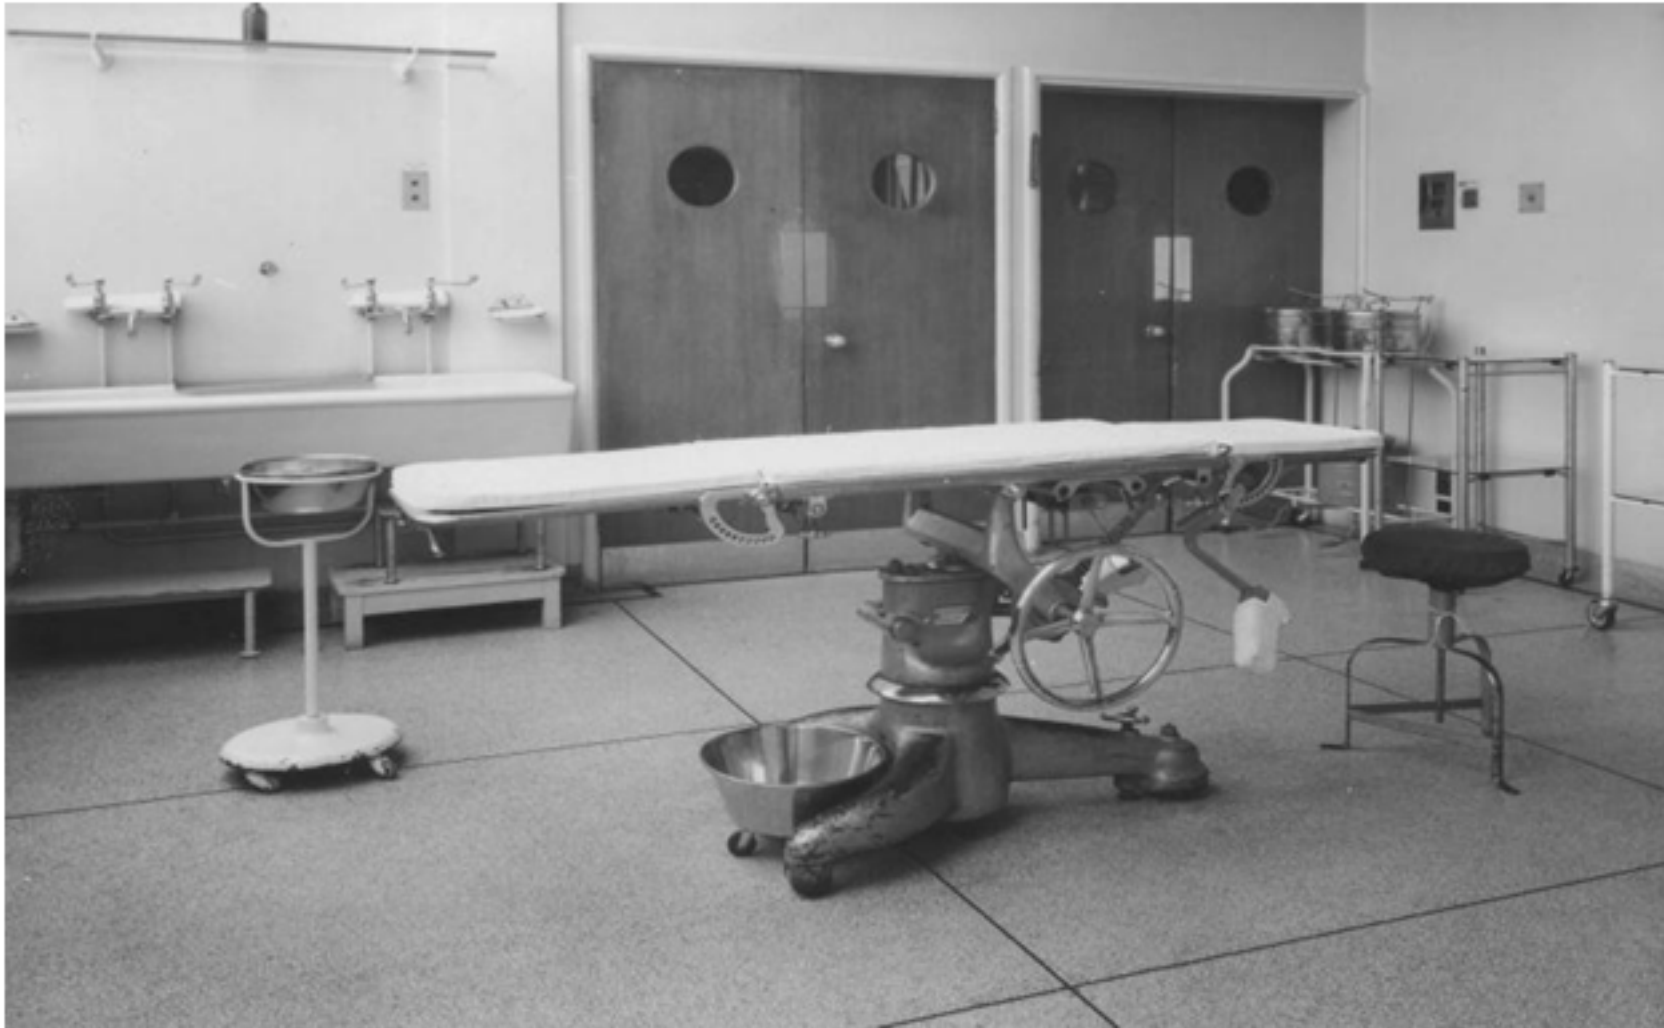

Ward 3 – home to the Guinea Pigs

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

Guinea Pig patients with 'pedicles'

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

QVH operating theatre

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

Canadian Wing, built 1944

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.

Centenary celebrations with QVH Patron HM Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother, 1963

Copyright of QVH NHS FT - do
not reproduce without permission.